PENNOYER'S PROCLAMATION.

Governor Penney of Oregon is first in the field this year, as he was a year ago, with a Thanksgiving proclamation, which is characteristic of the man who said, "Let the President attend to his business, I will attend to mine." But here is the document:

"I do hereby appoint the fourth Thursday of the present month as a day of thanksgiving to the Almighty God for the blessings He has bestowed upon this commonwealth during the present year.

"God has indeed been most beneficent to our State and Nation, and yet unjust and ill-advised Congressional legislation, having made gold alone full legal tender money, has so dwarfed and paralyzed business that the bounties of Providence are now denied to hundreds of thousands of people within the national domain, who are not only without employment, but also without means of procuring food, raiment or shelter.

"While, therefore, the people of Oregon return thanks to God for his goodness, I do most earnestly recommend that they devoutly implore him to depose the President and Congress of the United States to secure the restoration of silver as a full legal tender money in accordance with the policy of the fathers of the republic, whereby our industries may be revived, and honest toilers of the land may procure their daily bread not as alms, but as a reward of their labor."

THE RISING TIDE.

The dispatches tell of large bodies of organized tramps, which are roaming over the country, applying to the authorities for food, which is usually given them. It is also stated that they are quiet and orderly.

It is probable that these men would like work, it is certain they must and will have food. Now, suppose they are refused food and shelter; there can be but one result. Hungry men will stop at nothing to get food, and if it is not given them, it will be taken by force, and blood will flow just as surely as the pangs of hunger furnish the incentive. These comparatively small squads of tramps are but the rising tide of what will soon be a vast army of hungry men clamoring for bread.

Tragic Death.

Crawfordsville, Ind., November 4.—Mrs. Mattie Canary, a strikingly handsome young widow, committed suicide here yesterday morning six hours before the time set for her marriage with Walter F. Rosebro. Rosebro is a prominent citizen and only a year ago was editor of the Argus-News. He is now engaged in business in Greencastle. He is a prominent Mason and an officer in the Knights Templar.

His courtship of Mrs. Canary attracted considerable attention, because of the difference in their social position. The lady on Wednesday received a letter from a former lover asking her to come to him. The letter greatly excited her, and Wednesday night she purchased twenty-five grains of morphine and swallowed them yesterday with fatal results.

Saw The Fair.

Creston, Ia., November 4.—Roy Longwell, who was sentenced to six months in the County Jail and made his escape about ten days since, surprised the jailer by rapping at his door between 11 and 12 o'clock last night for admission. He had gone directly to Chicago to visit the exposition, and after seeing the sights at the World's Fair he returned to serve out his term. He says he left the jail with $21, a present from his mother, and returned with 5 cents.

A divorce suit has been brought at Los Angeles by Antoine Begen against his wife, Marie Begen. The plaintiff is seventy years old and the defendant sixty, and they have lived as man and wife for nearly forty years. They are very wealthy. The plaintiff brings a charge of cruelty against his wife in not caring properly for him when sick and allowing him to be sent to a hospital.
